CHRISTOPHER CUTTS GALLERY

40 YEARS – GROUP EXHIBITION

PART I – CONTEMPORARY

OCTOBER 17. 2026 – NOVEMBER 7, 2026

The Christopher Cutts Gallery is proud to present the first of its "40 Years" group exhibitions, celebrating the gallery's anniversary! This show focuses on the gallery's contemporary program.

Featuring more than 25 artists, this exhibition offers a glimpse into the breadth of contemporary artistic practices represented by the gallery. Almost all the artists included are still actively producing work, spanning a range of media, including painting, photography, and sculpture.

While the Christopher Cutts Gallery has established a reputation for its engagement with important historical Canadian painters, this anniversary exhibition turns the spotlight towards the subsequent generations of artists, highlighting the diversity of perspectives and approaches that have shaped the gallery's program over the years.

Reflecting on decades of supporting artistic exploration, this exhibition celebrates the gallery's ongoing commitment to representing a dynamic and evolving range of artistic voices.
